Join us for the premier international event of the year -- the 14th Annual International Business Forum & Networking Evening!

This event regularly attracts hundreds of companies involved in international business. The evening will feature a global economic outlook and an international resource center with more than 20 international trade associations and organizations representing over 3,000 New England companies. Come meet people interested in world trade while learning about the resources available to help your company's international business!

The Global Economic Outlook: Implications for International Business in the Year Ahead

(5:00 – 6:30 p.m.)

The global economy hangs in a delicate balance. As we face a possible domestic recession, businesses are concerned more than ever about the future of the economy. What is the outlook for U.S. and global economic indicators? Which markets offer stability? Which markets offer growth and opportunity? Which markets aren't worth the risk? What is the impact of the weakened dollar on global trade and investment flows? Get answers to these questions and many more from one of the area's leading economists. ~ Christopher Probyn, Chief International Economist – State Street Corporation.
