Immigration Update 2007

- H-1B status is the primary means for foreign national professionals to work in the U.S. H-1Bs are extremely limited in number and companies are fighting to get the precious few available for their valued employees. I will give an H-1B update and suggestions for alternatives if there are no H-1Bs available.
- Permanent Residency Options--"Green Card" strategies.
- How investors can "buy" immigration status in the U.S.
- Update on Immigration Reform Legislation in Congress and the new Social Security Administration Regulations regarding the employment of unauthorized aliens
- How do you apply for dual citizenship
- Estate planning and tax implications
